"WHO'S WHO IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Henry Scherb, lieutenant com-Henry Schern, iteutenant commanding the narcotic squad, under Police Commissioner Woods, is forty-seven, married and a native of Manhattan. He became a policeman on February 21, 1890, sergeant in 1903 and licutenant in 1911.

Scherb has been in charge of the "dope" squad since its organization by the Police Commissioner, in July, 1914. This squad averages one hundred arrests a month. It was in-strumental in breaking up the band which sold drugs to the prisoners on Blackwell's Island.

It was his work that brought about the conviction of Dr. Charles F. Baxter, resident physician, now serving time for accepting graft and selling drugs to prisoners under him. He has figured in the important drug cases.

Before the narcotic squad was organized Scherb was in command of the "strong arm" squad, succeeding Becker. His work carries him to every part of greater New York. Since the squad was started it has made 893 arrests.
